1913 – CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS – 2013

The AWA Veterans Association will celebrate AWA's centenary in July 2013 with a get-together of past or current employees and friends to socialise over a meal, relive old times, listen to guest speakers and inspect any memorabilia we can resurrect.

To plan this important event we need some idea of numbers.

Given that we are looking a year ahead, it's too much to ask now for firm commitments, but this is your chance to tell us that you will come if possible – please.

The venue: The Auditorium of the Burwood RSL Club, 96 Shaftesbury Rd., Burwood.

The date: Sunday the 28th of July 2013, from 9.30am to 4.30pm.

The cost: $40 per person for AWAVA members, friends and visitors.
Cost includes lunch and morning and afternoon teas.

Some car parking is available.

Please pass this on to any current and former workmates, and anyone else interested in AWA; all will be welcome.

Please tell us as soon as possible, that you will be there – or that you probably won't – by emailing or phoning our RSVP man:
